Friday, October 1, 2021

Cambridge Newcomer Connections (Fri Session Postponed)

Date and Time: Friday, October 1 06:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Address: Virtual

Due to an unexpected situation this session is postponed. Stay tuned for more information on a new date and time. Sessions for Saturday, October 2 will continue as scheduled.

We appreciate your understanding and look forward to having this important conversation at a later date.

The Cambridge Newcomer Outreach Program and Idea Exchange presents our first annual conference, Cambridge Newcomer Connections. This year’s virtual conference will be held on Friday, October 1 and Saturday, October 2, 2021.

We welcome everyone to join us, there is something for all! The five sessions provide information, activities and gifts that help create a sense of community online.

Learn more and register for this free event at www.cambridge.ca/newcomer!

The first 100 participants will win a gift bag.

Session 1 topic: Connecting Indigenous Reconciliation and Newcomers
For Whom: Panel discussion – All are welcome

Saturday, October 2, 2021

Cambridge Farmers' Market

Date and Time: Saturday, October 2 07:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.
Address: 40 Dickson Street, Cambridge, ON

A farmers’ market is a place of:
- Excitement and anticipation around food
- A centre of commerce and socializing
- A venue for combining old with new
- A place for new ideas to be explored

We encourage you to take part in this tradition as a shopper or entrepreneur; everyone is welcome at the market.

Ask yourself a few simple questions….
- Do you have a favourite food?
- Is there a food you don’t like?
- Do you have a comfort food that gives you a warm fuzzy or good memory?
- Do you have a friend or colleague that has introduced you to a food you had never tried before?

My hope is that you answered, “Yes,” to all of the above questions, and that’s what we love about food: It is a common bond we all share, a single thread that when talked about, brings to mind all sorts of stories and experiences that we can share.

Farmers’ markets are a centre of commerce and socializing, a venue for combining old with new and a place for new ideas to be explored and celebrated.

The Cambridge Farmers’ Market (CFM) is our community food hub. It is where residents gather to talk about food and community.
happenings. It's where awareness is built and the beginnings of change takes place.

The CFM dates back to the 1830s with the current market building holding its seat on Dickson Street since 1887. The presence of the market in conjunction with other civic structures, the Town Halls, is an English tradition that is as relevant today as it was when the market was built.

The CFM building's continued use as a market is unique in Ontario. While other markets either remain outdoors only or have had their original buildings converted for other uses, the CFM has continued to flourish in its original location in its original building for its original intended use and this should be celebrated.

As you explore the market, the sweet and spicy aromas of hot prepared foods and snacks will tempt you, along with an extensive selection of cheeses, chutneys, pies, confections, specialty oils, preserves, and seasonal fruits and vegetables.

A wide range of local growers and food producers can supply you with all your needs from savoury appetizers to mouth-watering desserts.

Our market wouldn't exist without those dedicated vendors, some of whom have been a part of our team for over 50 years. They arrive in the snow and in the rain, or in the heat of summer, often setting up as early as 3:30 in the morning and many don’t pack up until more than 12 hours later.

We have 26 year-round vendors and 30 seasonal vendors, averaging 56 vendors at the peak of the market season, who supply approximately 35,000 shopper visits each year.

You can learn more about our vendors by visiting the vendor directory on our website, cambridgefarmersmarket.ca.

The Cambridge Farmers' Market is open Saturdays from 7 am to 1 pm, year-round. It is located at the corner of Ainslie Street and Dickson Street, in the heart of downtown Cambridge, and parking is available nearby.

For more information, visit cambridgefarmersmarket.ca

---

Cambridge Newcomer Connections

Date and Time: Saturday, October 2 09:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.

Address: Virtual

The Cambridge Newcomer Outreach Program and Idea Exchange presents our first annual conference, Cambridge Newcomer Connections. This year's virtual conference will be held on Friday, October 1 and Saturday, October 2, 2021.

We welcome everyone to join us, there is something for all! The five sessions provide information, activities and gifts that help create a sense of community online.

Learn more and register for this free event at www.cambridge.ca/newcomer!

The first 100 participants will win a gift bag.

Session 2 topic: Connecting and Belonging
When: 9:00 a.m. – 10:30 a.m.
For Whom: Craft for children and families

Session 3 topic: Connecting Cambridge Newcomers and Supports
When: 11:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.
For Whom: Information about supports for everyone

Session 4 topic: Connecting Aging and Wellness
When: 1:00 p.m. – 2:30 p.m.
For Whom: Yoga and supports and programs for Older Adults & Seniors

Session 5 topic: Connecting Resilience and Vulnerability
When: 3:00 p.m. – 4:45 p.m.
For Whom: Mural and supports and programs for Youth and Young Adults
Cambridge Farmers' Market

Date and Time: Saturday, October 9 07:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Address: 40 Dickson Street, Cambridge, ON

A farmers' market is a place of:

- Excitement and anticipation around food
- A centre of commerce and socializing
- A venue for combining old with new
- A place for new ideas to be explored

We encourage you to take part in this tradition as a shopper or entrepreneur; everyone is welcome at the market.

Ask yourself a few simple questions….

- Do you have a favourite food?
- Is there a food you don’t like?
- Do you have a comfort food that gives you a warm fuzzy or good memory?
- Do you have a friend or colleague that has introduced you to a food you had never tried before?

My hope is that you answered, “Yes,” to all of the above questions, and that’s what we love about food: It is a common bond we all share, a single thread that when talked about, brings to mind all sorts of stories and experiences that we can share.

Farmers’ markets are a centre of commerce and socializing, a venue for combining old with new and a place for new ideas to be explored and celebrated.

The Cambridge Farmers’ Market (CFM) is our community food hub. It is where residents gather to talk about food and community happenings. It’s where awareness is built and the beginnings of change takes place.

The CFM dates back to the 1830s with the current market building holding its seat on Dickson Street since 1887. The presence of the market in conjunction with other civic structures, the Town Halls, is an English tradition that is as relevant today as it was when the market was built.

The CFM building’s continued use as a market is unique in Ontario. While other markets either remain outdoors only or have had their original buildings converted for other uses, the CFM has continued to flourish in its original location in its original building for its original intended use and this should be celebrated.

As you explore the market, the sweet and spicy aromas of hot prepared foods and snacks will tempt you, along with an extensive selection of cheeses, chutneys, pies, confections, specialty oils, preserves, and seasonal fruits and vegetables.

A wide range of local growers and food producers can supply you with all your needs from savoury appetizers to mouth-watering desserts.

Our market wouldn’t exist without those dedicated vendors, some of whom have been a part of our team for over 50 years. They arrive in the snow and in the rain, or in the heat of summer, often setting up as early as 3:30 in the morning and many don’t pack up until more than 12 hours later.

We have 26 year-round vendors and 30 seasonal vendors, averaging 56 vendors at the peak of the market season, who supply approximately 35,000 shopper visits each year.

You can learn more about our vendors by visiting the vendor directory on our website, cambridgefarmersmarket.ca.

The Cambridge Farmers’ Market is open Saturdays from 7 am to 1 pm, year-round. It is located at the corner of Ainslie Street and Dickson Street, in the heart of downtown Cambridge, and parking is available nearby.

For more information, visit cambridgefarmersmarket.ca
Eco=Justice: The Intersectionality of Racism, Health and Climate Change

Date and Time: Tuesday, October 12 04:00 p.m. - 5:30 p.m.

Address: Online

Please join Sustainable Waterloo Region on Tuesday October 12 2021 EDT as we welcome Dr. Ingrid Waldron, Founder and Executive Director of the ENRICH Project. During this 90 minutes event, Dr. Waldron will help us to understand the crucial connections between climate change, racism, health, and environmental justice. Using case studies of Indigenous and Black communities across Canada, we will seek to further understand the factors that disproportionately expose these communities to environmental inequities.

Wednesday, October 13, 2021

Let's Talk Fall Session

Date and Time: Wednesday, October 13 06:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Address: Online

Let's Talk is a newcomer youth program that explores your career goals and community through the arts such as drawing, video, music, poetry, and more! Also, you can gain volunteer hours, win prizes, meet new people, practice English, meet with career mentors and have fun!

Saturday, October 16, 2021

Cambridge Farmers' Market

Date and Time: Saturday, October 16 07:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Address: 40 Dickson Street, Cambridge, ON

A farmers’ market is a place of:

- Excitement and anticipation around food
- A centre of commerce and socializing
- A venue for combining old with new
- A place for new ideas to be explored

We encourage you to take part in this tradition as a shopper or entrepreneur; everyone is welcome at the market.

Ask yourself a few simple questions….

- Do you have a favourite food?
- Is there a food you don’t like?
- Do you have a comfort food that gives you a warm fuzzy or good memory?
- Do you have a friend or colleague that has introduced you to a food you had never tried before?

My hope is that you answered, “Yes,” to all of the above questions, and that’s what we love about food: It is a common bond we all share, a single thread that when talked about, brings to mind all sorts of stories and experiences that we can share.

Farmers’ markets are a centre of commerce and socializing, a venue for combining old with new and a place for new ideas to be explored and celebrated.

The Cambridge Farmers’ Market (CFM) is our community food hub. It is where residents gather to talk about food and community happenings. It’s where awareness is built and the beginnings of change takes place.

The CFM dates back to the 1830s with the current market building holding its seat on Dickson Street since 1887. The presence of the market in conjunction with other civic structures, the Town Halls, is an English tradition that is as relevant today as it was when the market was built.

The CFM building’s continued use as a market is unique in Ontario. While other markets either remain outdoors only or have had their original buildings converted for other uses, the CFM has continued to flourish in its original location in its original building for its original intended use and this should be celebrated.
As you explore the market, the sweet and spicy aromas of hot prepared foods and snacks will tempt you, along with an extensive selection of cheeses, chutneys, pies, confections, specialty oils, preserves, and seasonal fruits and vegetables.

A wide range of local growers and food producers can supply you with all your needs from savoury appetizers to mouth-watering desserts.

Our market wouldn't exist without those dedicated vendors, some of whom have been a part of our team for over 50 years. They arrive in the snow and in the rain, or in the heat of summer, often setting up as early as 3:30 in the morning and many don't pack up until more than 12 hours later.

We have 26 year-round vendors and 30 seasonal vendors, averaging 56 vendors at the peak of the market season, who supply approximately 35,000 shopper visits each year.

You can learn more about our vendors by visiting the vendor directory on our website, cambridgefarmersmarket.ca.

The Cambridge Farmers' Market is open Saturdays from 7 am to 1 pm, year-round. It is located at the corner of Ainslie Street and Dickson Street, in the heart of downtown Cambridge, and parking is available nearby.

For more information, visit cambridgefarmersmarket.ca

---

Wednesday, October 20, 2021

Let's Talk Fall Session

Date and Time: Wednesday, October 20 06:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Address: Online

Let's Talk is a newcomer youth program that explores your career goals and community through the arts such as drawing, video, music, poetry, and more! Also, you can gain volunteer hours, win prizes, meet new people, practice English, meet with career mentors and have fun!

---

Thursday, October 21, 2021

Public Consultation Notice-Accessory Residential Unit Regulations

Date and Time: Thursday, October 21 02:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Address: Virtual

The City is updating residential unit regulations to allow for the Provincial requirements of three units on one property. Help guide the process by joining us for a public consultation session on Oct 21. Learn more and register.

Public Consultation Notice-Accessory Residential Unit Regulations

Date and Time: Thursday, October 21 06:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.

Address: Virtual

The City is updating residential unit regulations to allow for the Provincial requirements of three units on one property. Help guide the process by joining us for a public consultation session on Oct 21. Learn more and register.

---

Saturday, October 23, 2021

Cambridge Farmers' Market
A farmers’ market is a place of:

- Excitement and anticipation around food
- A centre of commerce and socializing
- A venue for combining old with new
- A place for new ideas to be explored

We encourage you to take part in this tradition as a shopper or entrepreneur; everyone is welcome at the market.

Ask yourself a few simple questions….

- Do you have a favourite food?
- Is there a food you don’t like?
- Do you have a comfort food that gives you a warm fuzzy or good memory?
- Do you have a friend or colleague that has introduced you to a food you had never tried before?

My hope is that you answered, “Yes,” to all of the above questions, and that’s what we love about food: It is a common bond we all share, a single thread that when talked about, brings to mind all sorts of stories and experiences that we can share.

Farmers’ markets are a centre of commerce and socializing, a venue for combining old with new and a place for new ideas to be explored and celebrated.

The Cambridge Farmers’ Market (CFM) is our community food hub. It is where residents gather to talk about food and community happenings. It’s where awareness is built and the beginnings of change takes place.

The CFM dates back to the 1830s with the current market building holding its seat on Dickson Street since 1887. The presence of the market in conjunction with other civic structures, the Town Halls, is an English tradition that is as relevant today as it was when the market was built.

The CFM building’s continued use as a market is unique in Ontario. While other markets either remain outdoors only or have had their original buildings converted for other uses, the CFM has continued to flourish in its original location in its original building for its original intended use and this should be celebrated.

As you explore the market, the sweet and spicy aromas of hot prepared foods and snacks will tempt you, along with an extensive selection of cheeses, chutneys, pies, confections, specialty oils, preserves, and seasonal fruits and vegetables.

A wide range of local growers and food producers can supply you with all your needs from savoury appetizers to mouth-watering desserts.

Our market wouldn’t exist without those dedicated vendors, some of whom have been a part of our team for over 50 years. They arrive in the snow and in the rain, or in the heat of summer, often setting up as early as 3:30 in the morning and many don’t pack up until more than 12 hours later.

We have 26 year-round vendors and 30 seasonal vendors, averaging 56 vendors at the peak of the market season, who supply approximately 35,000 shopper visits each year.

You can learn more about our vendors by visiting the vendor directory on our website, cambridgefarmersmarket.ca.

The Cambridge Farmers’ Market is open Saturdays from 7 am to 1 pm, year-round. It is located at the corner of Ainslie Street and Dickson Street, in the heart of downtown Cambridge, and parking is available nearby.

For more information, visit cambridgefarmersmarket.ca

Let’s Be Neighbours Fall Picnic

Date and Time: Saturday, October 23 12:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Address: 125 Champlain Boulevard, Cambridge, ON, N1R 2X6

Join members of your community for an entertaining afternoon! Food, games, and surprises for the kids! This event is free and open to members of the Cambridge community! Join us!
Location:
Christopher Champlain Community Garden, located behind 125 Champlain Blvd, where Champlain Boulevard turns into McDonald Avenue.

We can't wait to meet you!

*Please note: COVID-19 protocol in place. While this is an outdoor event, we do ask that all participants bring a mask and wear them when distancing cannot be maintained. Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

*When you register you will be asked for your name, email address, and telephone number. Your phone number is being collected only for the purpose of contact tracing.

Wednesday, October 27, 2021

Let's Talk Fall Session
Date and Time: Wednesday, October 27 06:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.
Address: Online

Let's Talk is a newcomer youth program that explores your career goals and community through the arts such as drawing, video, music, poetry, and more! Also, you can gain volunteer hours, win prizes, meet new people, practice English, meet with career mentors and have fun!

Emergency: The Citizen's Guide to Climate Success
Date and Time: Wednesday, October 27 08:00 p.m. - 9:30 p.m.
Address: Online

Energy economist and author Mark Jaccard delivers the 2021 Hagey Lecture at the University of Waterloo, about what is required for climate success, and how you can contribute. Find out how to overcome the myths that hinder us from acting in time to prevent extreme climate impacts. The talk will be live-streamed for anyone to watch. Register at https://uwaterloo.ca/hagey-lectures.

Saturday, October 30, 2021

Cambridge Farmers' Market
Date and Time: Saturday, October 30 07:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.
Address: 40 Dickson Street, Cambridge, ON

A farmers’ market is a place of:
- Excitement and anticipation around food
- A centre of commerce and socializing
- A venue for combining old with new
- A place for new ideas to be explored

We encourage you to take part in this tradition as a shopper or entrepreneur; everyone is welcome at the market.

Ask yourself a few simple questions….
- Do you have a favourite food?
- Is there a food you don’t like?
- Do you have a comfort food that gives you a warm fuzzy or good memory?
- Do you have a friend or colleague that has introduced you to a food you had never tried before?

My hope is that you answered, “Yes,” to all of the above questions, and that's what we love about food: It is a common bond we all share, a single thread that when talked about, brings to mind all sorts of stories and experiences that we can share.
Farmers' markets are a centre of commerce and socializing, a venue for combining old with new and a place for new ideas to be explored and celebrated.

The Cambridge Farmers' Market (CFM) is our community food hub. It is where residents gather to talk about food and community happenings. It’s where awareness is built and the beginnings of change takes place.

The CFM dates back to the 1830s with the current market building holding its seat on Dickson Street since 1887. The presence of the market in conjunction with other civic structures, the Town Halls, is an English tradition that is as relevant today as it was when the market was built.

The CFM building’s continued use as a market is unique in Ontario. While other markets either remain outdoors only or have had their original buildings converted for other uses, the CFM has continued to flourish in its original location in its original building for its original intended use and this should be celebrated.

As you explore the market, the sweet and spicy aromas of hot prepared foods and snacks will tempt you, along with an extensive selection of cheeses, chutneys, pies, confections, specialty oils, preserves, and seasonal fruits and vegetables.

A wide range of local growers and food producers can supply you with all your needs from savoury appetizers to mouth-watering desserts.

Our market wouldn’t exist without those dedicated vendors, some of whom have been a part of our team for over 50 years. They arrive in the snow and in the rain, or in the heat of summer, often setting up as early as 3:30 in the morning and many don’t pack up until more than 12 hours later.

We have 26 year-round vendors and 30 seasonal vendors, averaging 56 vendors at the peak of the market season, who supply approximately 35,000 shopper visits each year.

You can learn more about our vendors by visiting the vendor directory on our website, cambridgefarmersmarket.ca.

The Cambridge Farmers' Market is open Saturdays from 7 am to 1 pm, year-round. It is located at the corner of Ainslie Street and Dickson Street, in the heart of downtown Cambridge, and parking is available nearby.

For more information, visit cambridgefarmersmarket.ca

---

Soroptimist International of Cambridge - Online Cooking Class Fundraiser

Date and Time: Saturday, October 30 05:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

Address: VirtualVirtual

Soroptimist Cambridge is hosting a Fall Harvest Online Cooking Class, join us for a fun and interactive cooking class led by local chef Dana Urosevic-Strickland.

October 30, 2021 @ 5:00-7:00 PM

$40 per ticket

http://calendar.cambridge.ca