Tuesday, June 1, 2021

Part I: Allyship in the Community

Date and Time: Tuesday, June 1 01:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.

National AccessAbility Week (NAAW)

Join us from Monday, May 31 to Friday, June 4, 2021 from 1pm to 2pm each day for engaging and informative discussions with people who are making strides to increase inclusion in our workplaces and communities and helping those with disabilities “access the future.” This year's Life Made Accessible webinar series will focus is on “Accessing the Future”, where we look to the horizon of accessibility: technology, information and communication, employment and “allyship.”

Allyship Miniseries:

Tuesday, June 1: Part I: Allyship in the Community:

What does it mean to be a good ally to people with diverse needs in your community? Join us to learn about the power of allyship from the perspective of people with lived experience of disability and intersectional identities, as well as allies who are passionate about building equitable communities.

Registration Link

https://cnib.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_kTv42SeuRpSf34Q13sivSg

Wednesday, June 2, 2021

Part II: Allyship in the Workplace

Date and Time: Wednesday, June 2 01:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.

National AccessAbility Week (NAAW)

Join us from Monday, May 31 to Friday, June 4, 2021 from 1pm to 2pm each day for engaging and informative discussions with people who are making strides to increase inclusion in our workplaces and communities and helping those with disabilities “access the future.” This year's Life Made Accessible webinar series will focus is on “Accessing the Future”, where we look to the horizon of accessibility: technology, information and communication, employment and “allyship.”

Allyship Miniseries:

Wednesday, June 2: Part II: Allyship in the Workplace:

What does it mean to be an ally to your co-workers or staff with disabilities? How can you help to create a diverse and equitable work environment? Join us as we discuss the power of allyship in the workplace. Hear about allyship from the perspectives of people with lived experience of disability and the impact that allyship has had on their lives and careers. Learn how to be a stronger ally in your place of work as we build an equitable future together.

Registration Link

https://cnib.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_wYkV7YbuRi6lw3AfMaFfAw

Thursday, June 3, 2021

Accessible Communication and Information Distribution
National AccessAbility Week (NAAW)

Join us from Monday, May 31 to Friday, June 4, 2021 from 1pm to 2pm each day for engaging and informative discussions with people who are making strides to increase inclusion in our workplaces and communities and helping those with disabilities “access the future.” This year’s Life Made Accessible webinar series will focus is on “Accessing the Future”, where we look to the horizon of accessibility: technology, information and communication, employment and “allyship.”

Thursday, June 3: Accessible Communication and Information Distribution

Have you ever wondered how you can make your meetings or events inclusive for everyone? Join us to learn about what you can do to improve communication in your workplace. Our panelists will discuss accessible documents, accessible meetings and events, workplace inclusion and equity, and communication barriers during the pandemic.

Registration Link

https://cnib.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_g_deQ9_OTvOmQ9jgXSUOqg

Friday, June 4, 2021

Accessibility into the Future- A Look at New Technologies that are Breaking Barriers

Date and Time: Friday, June 4 01:00 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.

National AccessAbility Week (NAAW)

Join us from Monday, May 31 to Friday, June 4, 2021 from 1pm to 2pm each day for engaging and informative discussions with people who are making strides to increase inclusion in our workplaces and communities and helping those with disabilities “access the future.” This year’s Life Made Accessible webinar series will focus is on “Accessing the Future”, where we look to the horizon of accessibility: technology, information and communication, employment and “allyship.”

Friday, June 4: Accessibility into the Future- A Look at New Technologies that are Breaking Barriers:

Every day, innovative new technologies are being developed that reduce barriers for people with disabilities. Join us to hear from people with lived experience of disability as they discuss how they use technology to maintain their independence, access information and employment, and participate in their communities. Learn how technology is breaking barriers to accessibility, and how technology will continue to equalize our access to the world in the future.

Registration Link

https://cnib.zoom.us/webinar/register/WN_LDm5mY1mTimOR8-IPQMXZA

Saturday, June 5, 2021

Cambridge Farmers' Market

Date and Time: Saturday, June 5 07:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Address: 40 Dickson Street, Cambridge, ON

A farmers’ market is a place of:

- Excitement and anticipation around food
- A centre of commerce and socializing
- A venue for combining old with new
- A place for new ideas to be explored

We encourage you to take part in this tradition as a shopper or entrepreneur; everyone is welcome at the market.

Ask yourself a few simple questions….
Do you have a favourite food?
Is there a food you don’t like?
Do you have a comfort food that gives you a warm fuzzy or good memory?
Do you have a friend or colleague that has introduced you to a food you had never tried before?

My hope is that you answered, “Yes,” to all of the above questions, and that’s what we love about food: It is a common bond we all share, a single thread that when talked about, brings to mind all sorts of stories and experiences that we can share.

Farmers’ markets are a centre of commerce and socializing, a venue for combining old with new and a place for new ideas to be explored and celebrated.

The Cambridge Farmers’ Market (CFM) is our community food hub. It is where residents gather to talk about food and community happenings. It’s where awareness is built and the beginnings of change takes place.

The CFM dates back to the 1830s with the current market building holding its seat on Dickson Street since 1887. The presence of the market in conjunction with other civic structures, the Town Halls, is an English tradition that is as relevant today as it was when the market was built.

The CFM building’s continued use as a market is unique in Ontario. While other markets either remain outdoors only or have had their original buildings converted for other uses, the CFM has continued to flourish in its original location in its original building for its original intended use and this should be celebrated.

As you explore the market, the sweet and spicy aromas of hot prepared foods and snacks will tempt you, along with an extensive selection of cheeses, chutneys, pies, confections, specialty oils, preserves, and seasonal fruits and vegetables.

A wide range of local growers and food producers can supply you with all your needs from savoury appetizers to mouth-watering desserts.

Our market wouldn’t exist without those dedicated vendors, some of whom have been a part of our team for over 50 years. They arrive in the snow and in the rain, or in the heat of summer, often setting up as early as 3:30 in the morning and many don’t pack up until more than 12 hours later.

We have 26 year-round vendors and 30 seasonal vendors, averaging 56 vendors at the peak of the market season, who supply approximately 35,000 shopper visits each year.

You can learn more about our vendors by visiting the vendor directory on our website, cambridgefarmersmarket.ca.

The Cambridge Farmers’ Market is open Saturdays from 7 am to 1 pm, year-round. It is located at the corner of Ainslie Street and Dickson Street, in the heart of downtown Cambridge, and parking is available nearby.

For more information, visit cambridgefarmersmarket.ca

---

Saturday, June 12, 2021

Cambridge Farmers’ Market

Date and Time: Saturday, June 12 07:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Address: 40 Dickson Street, Cambridge, ON

A farmers’ market is a place of:

- Excitement and anticipation around food
- A centre of commerce and socializing
- A venue for combining old with new
- A place for new ideas to be explored

We encourage you to take part in this tradition as a shopper or entrepreneur; everyone is welcome at the market.

Ask yourself a few simple questions….

- Do you have a favourite food?
- Is there a food you don’t like?
- Do you have a comfort food that gives you a warm fuzzy or good memory?
Do you have a friend or colleague that has introduced you to a food you had never tried before?

My hope is that you answered, “Yes,” to all of the above questions, and that’s what we love about food: It is a common bond we all share, a single thread that when talked about, brings to mind all sorts of stories and experiences that we can share.

Farmers’ markets are a centre of commerce and socializing, a venue for combining old with new and a place for new ideas to be explored and celebrated.

The Cambridges’ Farmers’ Market (CFM) is our community food hub. It is where residents gather to talk about food and community happenings. It’s where awareness is built and the beginnings of change takes place.

The CFM dates back to the 1830s with the current market building holding its seat on Dickson Street since 1887. The presence of the market in conjunction with other civic structures, the Town Halls, is an English tradition that is as relevant today as it was when the market was built.

The CFM building’s continued use as a market is unique in Ontario. While other markets either remain outdoors only or have had their original buildings converted for other uses, the CFM has continued to flourish in its original location in its original building for its original intended use and this should be celebrated.

As you explore the market, the sweet and spicy aromas of hot prepared foods and snacks will tempt you, along with an extensive selection of cheeses, chutneys, pies, confections, specialty oils, preserves, and seasonal fruits and vegetables.

A wide range of local growers and food producers can supply you with all your needs from savoury appetizers to mouth-watering desserts.

Our market wouldn’t exist without those dedicated vendors, some of whom have been a part of our team for over 50 years. They arrive in the snow and in the rain, or in the heat of summer, often setting up as early as 3:30 in the morning and many don’t pack up until more than 12 hours later.

We have 26 year-round vendors and 30 seasonal vendors, averaging 56 vendors at the peak of the market season, who supply approximately 35,000 shopper visits each year.

You can learn more about our vendors by visiting the vendor directory on our website, cambridgefarmersmarket.ca.

The Cambridge Farmers’ Market is open Saturdays from 7 am to 1 pm, year-round. It is located at the corner of Ainslie Street and Dickson Street, in the heart of downtown Cambridge, and parking is available nearby.

For more information, visit cambridgefarmersmarket.ca

---

Saturday, June 19, 2021

Cambridge Farmers’ Market

Date and Time: Saturday, June 19 07:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Address: 40 Dickson Street, Cambridge, ON

A farmers’ market is a place of:

- Excitement and anticipation around food
- A centre of commerce and socializing
- A venue for combining old with new
- A place for new ideas to be explored

We encourage you to take part in this tradition as a shopper or entrepreneur; everyone is welcome at the market.

Ask yourself a few simple questions….

- Do you have a favourite food?
- Is there a food you don’t like?
- Do you have a comfort food that gives you a warm fuzzy or good memory?
- Do you have a friend or colleague that has introduced you to a food you had never tried before?

My hope is that you answered, “Yes,” to all of the above questions, and that’s what we love about food: It is a common bond we all
Farmers' markets are a centre of commerce and socializing, a venue for combining old with new and a place for new ideas to be explored and celebrated.

The Cambridge Farmers’ Market (CFM) is our community food hub. It is where residents gather to talk about food and community happenings. It’s where awareness is built and the beginnings of change takes place.

The CFM dates back to the 1830s with the current market building holding its seat on Dickson Street since 1887. The presence of the market in conjunction with other civic structures, the Town Halls, is an English tradition that is as relevant today as it was when the market was built.

The CFM building’s continued use as a market is unique in Ontario. While other markets either remain outdoors only or have had their original buildings converted for other uses, the CFM has continued to flourish in its original location in its original building for its original intended use and this should be celebrated.

As you explore the market, the sweet and spicy aromas of hot prepared foods and snacks will tempt you, along with an extensive selection of cheeses, chutneys, pies, confections, specialty oils, preserves, and seasonal fruits and vegetables.

A wide range of local growers and food producers can supply you with all your needs from savoury appetizers to mouth-watering desserts.

Our market wouldn’t exist without those dedicated vendors, some of whom have been a part of our team for over 50 years. They arrive in the snow and in the rain, or in the heat of summer, often setting up as early as 3:30 in the morning and many don’t pack up until more than 12 hours later.

We have 26 year-round vendors and 30 seasonal vendors, averaging 56 vendors at the peak of the market season, who supply approximately 35,000 shopper visits each year.

You can learn more about our vendors by visiting the vendor directory on our website, cambridgefarmersmarket.ca.

The Cambridge Farmers’ Market is open Saturdays from 7 am to 1 pm, year-round. It is located at the corner of Ainslie Street and Dickson Street, in the heart of downtown Cambridge, and parking is available nearby.

For more information, visit cambridgefarmersmarket.ca

---

Saturday, June 26, 2021

Cambridge Farmers' Market

Date and Time: Saturday, June 26 07:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Address: 40 Dickson Street, Cambridge, ON

A farmers' market is a place of:

- Excitement and anticipation around food
- A centre of commerce and socializing
- A venue for combining old with new
- A place for new ideas to be explored

We encourage you to take part in this tradition as a shopper or entrepreneur; everyone is welcome at the market.

Ask yourself a few simple questions….

- Do you have a favourite food?
- Is there a food you don’t like?
- Do you have a comfort food that gives you a warm fuzzy or good memory?
- Do you have a friend or colleague that has introduced you to a food you had never tried before?

My hope is that you answered, “Yes,” to all of the above questions, and that’s what we love about food: It is a common bond we all share, a single thread that when talked about, brings to mind all sorts of stories and experiences that we can share.

Farmers’ markets are a centre of commerce and socializing, a venue for combining old with new and a place for new ideas to be explored and celebrated.
explored and celebrated.

The Cambridge Farmers’ Market (CFM) is our community food hub. It is where residents gather to talk about food and community happenings. It’s where awareness is built and the beginnings of change takes place.

The CFM dates back to the 1830s with the current market building holding its seat on Dickson Street since 1887. The presence of the market in conjunction with other civic structures, the Town Halls, is an English tradition that is as relevant today as it was when the market was built.

The CFM building’s continued use as a market is unique in Ontario. While other markets either remain outdoors only or have had their original buildings converted for other uses, the CFM has continued to flourish in its original location in its original building for its original intended use and this should be celebrated.

As you explore the market, the sweet and spicy aromas of hot prepared foods and snacks will tempt you, along with an extensive selection of cheeses, chutneys, pies, confections, specialty oils, preserves, and seasonal fruits and vegetables.

A wide range of local growers and food producers can supply you with all your needs from savoury appetizers to mouth-watering desserts.

Our market wouldn’t exist without those dedicated vendors, some of whom have been a part of our team for over 50 years. They arrive in the snow and in the rain, or in the heat of summer, often setting up as early as 3:30 in the morning and many don’t pack up until more than 12 hours later.

We have 26 year-round vendors and 30 seasonal vendors, averaging 56 vendors at the peak of the market season, who supply approximately 35,000 shopper visits each year.

You can learn more about our vendors by visiting the vendor directory on our website, cambridgefarmersmarket.ca.

The Cambridge Farmers’ Market is open Saturdays from 7 am to 1 pm, year-round. It is located at the corner of Ainslie Street and Dickson Street, in the heart of downtown Cambridge, and parking is available nearby.

For more information, visit cambridgefarmersmarket.ca

https://calendar.cambridge.ca